...You Are Not Ready!

Don't think because your toon rolled a few blues, received some green quest rewards and enchanted your weapons with a red glow, that you are a twink; you are a noob. You wouldn't last more than 30 seconds in a typical battle ground. Today's BG's are made up of rogues, warriors, paladins, shamans, druids, warlocks, and priests decked out in the best gear available and with only the rarest enchants.

Simply the want, to be a twink will not get you far in the World of Warcraft. You need knowledge, patience, gold (lots of it), and time. And your going to need help. That's where Warcraft-Twinks.Com comes in.
